1. Introduction

Under UK data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how our school uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'privacy notices' (sometimes called 'fair processing notices') to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store, and use personal data about individuals we employ, or otherwise engage to work at our school.

We, Excellence Girls Academy (Excellence Academy Girls School Ltd.), are the 'data controller' for the purposes of UK data protection law. We are registered with the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) (Reg. No. ZA541550).

Our Data Protection Officer (DPO) is Laura Webb (see 'Contact us' below).

We may also collect, use, store, and share (when appropriate) information about criminal convictions and offences.

Please see our Safer Recruitment Policy for details on how we oversee DBS certificates in accordance with the DBS Code of Practice and Data Protection Law.

Where you have given, us consent to do so, we may send you marketing information by email or text promoting school events, campaigns, charitable causes, or services that may be of interest to you.

You can withdraw consent or 'opt out' of receiving these emails and/or texts at any time by clicking on the 'Unsubscribe' link at the bottom of any such communication, or by contacting us (see 'Contact us' below).

3.2 Use of your personal data in automated decision making and profiling

We do not currently process any personal data through automated decision making or profiling. If this changes in the future, we will amend any relevant privacy notices in order to explain the processing to you, including your right to object to it.

3.3 Use of your personal data for filtering and monitoring purposes

While you're in our school, we may monitor your use of our information and communications systems, equipment, and facilities (e.g. school computers). We do this so that we can:

- Comply with health and safety and other legal obligations

4. Our lawful basis for using this data

We only collect and use personal information about you for data for the purposes listed in section 3 when the law allows us to, as per the ICO's guidance on the lawful basis for processing.

Most commonly, we use it where we need to:

Less commonly, we may also use personal information about you where:

- You have given us consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect your vital interests (or someone else's interests)

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using personal information about you overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify the school's use of your data.

Where you have provided us with consent to use your data, you may withdraw this consent at any time. We will make this clear when requesting your consent and explain how you would go about withdrawing consent if you wish to do so.

- We need to process it for archiving purposes, scientific or historical research purposes, or for statistical purposes, and the processing is in the public interest
